

Dr. Tibor Beke (University of Massachusetts Lowell) will spend the fall term at the Department as a Fulbright scholar. He will teach the course "Geometric applications of model theory" and will collaborate with J. Rosický and M. Lieberman.