

We will continue online on Thursday, March 11th, at 1pm on ZOOM platform (for information how to access seminar and next programme visit ) by the talk:

this page

Eric Faber

Simplicial Moore paths are polynomial

Abstract:

In this talk I will show that the simplicial Moore path functor, first defined by Van den Berg and Garner, is a polynomial functor. This result, which surprised us a bit at first, has helped a great deal in developing effective Kan fibrations for simplicial sets. Based on joint work with Van den Berg.