

SIMPLICIAL MOORE PATHS ARE POLYNOMIAL

ERIC FABER

In this talk I will show that the simplicial Moore path functor, first defined by Van den Berg and Garner, is a polynomial functor. This result, which surprised us a bit at first, has helped a great deal in developing effective Kan fibrations for simplicial sets. Based on joint work with Van den Berg.