

Dear Colleagues,

I am inviting you to the informal meeting at the occasion of the Autumn Semester start.

On Wednesday, September 21, with small refreshment at hand, we could talk about both news and dreams. I promise answers to your questions. We shall meet in parallel in both common rooms for the students and employees (at the ground floor and the first floor), at 4pm

. I believe this will be a good opportunity to talk and so we shall stay longer and it makes sense to come late too.

I hope to meet soon!

Best regards,

Jan Slovak
(director of the department)
